

Cannot Be Improved Upon

There are some things that cannot be improved upon—and a good loaf of bread is one of them. The art of bread making is centuries old. Our bread comes to you, savory, well baked, made from select grains, from the purest flour; it is an ornament and a necessity to your table; it represents the acme of intelligence, experience, science and skill of the human race.

Preparing For Military Emergency

Backus Hospital Asked to Provide Surgical Dressings for Injured Men Who May be Sent Here—Connecticut State Council of Defense Seeking Information Regarding Local Conditions.

The Backus hospital of this city has been asked by the Connecticut state council of defense through the council's committee on medicine and sanitation to prepare immediately for a possible military emergency and to hold itself in readiness to receive on short notice invalids or injured men. The request has been made in a letter sent by the chairman of the committee to Supt. F. Leon Hutchins. The letter is as follows:

F. Leon Hutchins, Superintendent Backus Hospital:

Dear Sir:—

I have been asked by the state council of defense to ascertain whether your hospital has on hand a stock of surgical dressings to be drawn upon in case of military emergency. If not, it is urged that such be provided, sufficient to last two or three weeks, and kept in a sealed box in readiness for such contingencies.

If such material cannot be otherwise obtained, the local Red Cross chapter would probably provide it. It is requested also that you send me a list of such articles when obtained.

PLAINFIELD HAS NEED OF NEW ALMSHOUSE

Present Building is Old and More or Less Out of Repair.

Secretary Charles P. Kellogg of the state board of charities did not find the conditions at the almshouse in East Haddam satisfactory when he visited the institution one day this week. Kellogg said the building was uncomfortable and he recommended that new beds be substituted for them.

On his visit to the almshouse at Groton Secretary Kellogg was of the opinion that it was badly in need of a better water supply and he made a recommendation to that effect. Other recommendations were made in a satisfactory condition he thought. In Plainfield there is reported a pressing need at present used for the accommodation of the poor of that town is declared to be old and more or less out of repair.

It is the opinion of Secretary Kellogg that no almshouse should be erected without delay. The institution at Killingly he considered well equipped and up to date in its furnishings.
